

Volunteering to help:

There are a number of ways to help the Civic Society and get involved by providing occasional voluntary assistance with the Society's various activities.

We find it useful to have a list of possible volunteers to approach – and to know what members' particular interests are. So we are building up a list of possible volunteers and would be grateful if you would fill in the form below and return it by email, post or by hand to Parmoor House.

But please rest assured that filling in the form does not commit you at all. The organiser of any activity will simply phone or email you to ask if you would be willing and available to help on a specific day.

I would be prepared from time to time to help with (please tick as appropriate).

- Serving coffee, tea or drinks at a CCS event and clearing away afterwards.
- Providing contributions of food (bought or home-made) for a Civic Society event.
- Introducing or thanking speakers at Civic Society events.
- Stewarding (1 or more separate 2-hour sessions) on Heritage Open Days in September.
- Stewarding at occasional exhibitions at Parmoor House or elsewhere.
- Helping to reorganise the Civic Society office and set up a more sophisticated archive.
- Supervising a student project.
- Researching into specific aspects of Cheltenham's architecture or community.
- Developing a guided walk that the Civic Society could offer at Heritage Open Days or at one of the Festivals.
- Sending out requests like this by post, to those without email.
- Other (please specify).
